

Bob Noyes Joined CWEB, in the spring of 2017 and is serving as the treasurer of the Dallas Crime Watch Executive Board, representing the Northwest Division of the Dallas. Bob was the 2012 Volunteer of the year for the Dallas Police Department. He is the current President of the Walnut Hill Homeowners Association and has been Chairperson of the Walnut Hill VIP group for the past eight years, where citizens patrol their neighborhood in their own vehicles watching for any suspicious or unusual activity. The VIP group has frequently reported garage doors left open, gates open and packages on resident porches while working in conjunction with the Northwest DPD officers. The VIP group continually stresses “See Something, Say Something” as a reminder for neighbors to watch out for their neighbors. In 2004 Bob retired from Fisher Price where he worked in the Power Wheels Division as a merchandiser in the north central Texas area.
